

Global Competence Workshop

WenYa Elementary School

Chiayi City, Taiwan

January 16, 2024

Leading speaker:

Mr. Greg Gaiera is a fourth-grade teacher in Union Street Chapter School, Arcata, California. His passion as an educator is to bring the world in all its beauty, variety, and wonder to his students and school community. In pursuit of this goal, Greg has been awarded a National Geographic Grosvenor Fellowship, a Fulbright, and the 2023 Carol Marquis Global Understanding Award. greg.unionstreet@gmail.com

Co-host:

Ms. Frede Chen is a teacher of international education in Chiao Hsin Elementary School, Changhua County, Taiwan. She has her doctoral degree specializing in the implementation of international education policies in National Chung Cheng University. Frede is Mr. Greg Gaiera's co-teacher in Taiwan California Classroom Connect project. chfrede@gmail.com

Agenda

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 13:30 –13:45 | Opening & Introduction |
| 13:45 –14:45 | Global Competency:
The Sustainable Development Goals and Global Competency Indicators
Introductions & Overview
What is Global Competence?
Why is Global Competence important?
Our Students are Global Citizens
Developing Global Competence Practices in Our Classrooms
United Nations Sustainable Development Goals
Teaching Resources for Global Competence |
| 14:45 –15:00 | Break |
| 15:00 – 16:00 | Global Classroom Connect: Using Children's Literature to Connect to the SDGs
Lessons for Teaching and Learning the SDGs by using Children's Literature. |
| 16:00 –16:30 | Q&A |